

Join us for a special screening of the TEACH documentary at the

MONTVIEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

1980 Dahlia Street, Denver 80220

October 15th, 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

TEACH

TEACHERS ARE TALKING IS THE NATION LISTENING

A Documentary
Made by and About Teachers

*Engage in a lively panel discussion with educators about how to improve the quality of the teaching and learning
for all children.*

All are welcome:
teachers, parents,
and community members.

Sponsored by DCTA's Club 30

Please RSVP to globalteacher@comcast.net

For More Info About TEACH: www.teachdocumentary.com 617 699-9349

TEACH, Teachers Are Talking, Is the Nation Listening brings an important perspective to the national education debate that is currently being dominated by a corporate led agenda to privatize education and blame teachers for everything that is wrong with education in this country. This documentary takes on many questions about No Child Left Behind, high stakes testing, unequal distribution of education resources, and schools dominated by data driven curriculum instead of providing an education that is dynamic, creative, exciting, and joyful.

TEACHER MADE LABOR DONATED